

Presented by
Cal Expo, KCRA Channel 3, and
Sacramento Community Organizations*

One Night One World

Sacramento Celebrates Diversity
with the Beijing
Summer Olympics

FREE
Open to Public
August 8, 2008
Cal Expo
5:30pm – 11pm

Sacramento
Co-Sponsoring
Community Organizations

ANONS Slavic
Community Newspaper
Asian Pacific Islander American
Public Affairs Association
California Chinese
Engineers Association
California Chinese e-Resources
Dazupu
Folsom Chess Club
Indo-American Cultural Heritage
Organization of Chinese
Americans-GSC
Pacific Rim
Street Fest Committee
Russian-American Media
Russian Yellow Pages
Sacramento Branch NAACP
Sacramento Chinese
Cultural Foundation
TOFA of Sacramento
Yee Fow Center for History
Culture and Trade

2008 Olympics Opening Ceremonies Viewing Party

Objectives of the Event:

- To celebrate diversity in the greater Sacramento and surrounding areas
- A local opportunity to celebrate the Olympic with the World
- A non-political and non-commercial event presented by community organizations and volunteers

Highlights of the Event:

- Live multi-national and multi-cultural performances
- Meet and greet former Olympians
- International cuisines
- Exhibits galore
- Family and children activities
- Large outdoor television (JumboTron) live broadcast of the 2008 Beijing Olympic Opening Ceremony beginning at 8pm

Visit our Web site at www.bj-2008.org